

Announcing the

Arlin G. Meyer Prize 2010

The National Network Board of the Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts is proud to announce the 2010 Arlin G. Meyer Prize in MUSIC PERFORMANCE

The Arlin G. Meyer Prize is awarded biennially to a fulltime faculty member from a college or university in the Lilly Fellows Program National Network. Work that exemplifies the practice of the Christian artistic or scholarly vocation in relation to any pertinent subject matter or literary and artistic style will be considered. The prize will be awarded in different years for works of creative imagination and for works of scholarship. The 2010 Arlin G. Meyer Prize will reward the conductor or performer of a musical work that emerges from his or her practice of the vocation of the Christian musician, in accord with the principles and ideals of the Lilly Fellows Program.

The Prize honors Arlin G. Meyer, Professor Emeritus of English at Valparaiso University, who served as program director of the Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts from its inception in 1991 until his retirement in 2002.

The 2010 Arlin G. Meyer Prize will be awarded to a full-time faculty member at a school in the Lilly Fellows Program National Network of Church-Related Colleges and Universities who has conducted or performed the musical work before a live audience in 2007, 2008, or 2009.

The Prize of $3000 will be awarded at the Lilly Fellows Program National Conference at Valparaiso University, October 15-17, 2010.

Nomination Procedure

1. Each Lilly Fellows Program National Network institution may nominate one faculty performer or conductor in the performance of one work for the 2010 Arlin G. Meyer Prize. The institution may select its nominee through any process.
2. The work must have been performed or conducted by a fulltime faculty member or administrator at a current Lilly Fellows Program National Network institution. The full-time faculty member may be a visiting faculty artist. If the nominee is a conductor or co-conductor, the performers may be any combination of faculty, students, guests, or community artists.
3. The music may represent any form or genre, including opera and musical theatre.
4. The work must have been performed during the calendar year 2007, 2008, or 2009.
5. A nomination must include:
 - A cover letter of nomination signed by one or both of the two official LFP representatives from the nominating institution
 - A statement or narrative of approximately 500 words explaining how the work exemplifies the practice of the Christian academic and artistic vocation
 - A CD, DVD, or VHS recording of the performance. This must be a live performance, not a studio recording
 - The nominee's curriculum vitae
6. Nominations must be sent to the LFP office at:
Arlin G. Meyer Prize
Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts
Linwood House
Valparaiso University
Valparaiso, Indiana 46383
7. Nomination deadline: March 1, 2010. Nominations received after this date cannot be considered.

For more information, please visit: www.lillyfellows.org

Future subjects of the Arlin G. Meyer Prize: 2012 IMAGINATIVE LITERATURE

The Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts

The Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts, established in 1991, seeks to strengthen the quality and shape the character of church-related institutions of higher learning in the twenty-first century.

First, it offers postdoctoral teaching fellowships for young scholars who wish to renew their sense of vocation within a Christian community of learning in order to prepare themselves for positions of educational leadership within church-related institutions.

Second, through the Lilly Graduate Fellows Program, it supports, during their first three years of graduate school, young men and women of exceptional academic talent who are exploring vocations in church-related higher education.

Third, it maintains a collaborative National Network of Church-Related colleges and universities that sponsors a variety of activities and publications designed to explore the Christian character of the academic vocation and to strengthen the religious nature of church-related institutions. The National Network represents a diversity of denominational traditions, institutional types, and geographical locations.

Lilly Fellows Program Network Institutions

Abilene Christian University	Gordon College	Saint Louis University
Augsburg College	Goshen College	Saint Mary's College (IN)
Azusa Pacific University	Grove City College	Saint Mary's University of Minnesota
Baylor University	Gustavus Adolphus College	Saint Olaf College
Belmont University	Hope College	Saint Xavier University
Belmont Abbey College	Houghton College	Salve Regina University
Benedictine University	Houston Baptist University	Samford University
Berea College	Illinois College	Seattle Pacific University
Bethel University	Indiana Wesleyan University	Sewanee: University of the South
Bethune-Cookman College	Lewis University	Texas Lutheran University
Biola University	Loyola College in Maryland	Union University
Boston College	Loyola Marymount University	University of Dallas
California Lutheran University	Luther College	University of Dayton
Calvin College	Mercer University	University of the Incarnate Word
College of the Holy Cross	Messiah College	University of Indianapolis
College of St. Benedict	Midland Lutheran College	University of Notre Dame
Columbia College	Morningside College	University of St. Thomas
Concordia College-Moorhead	Mount Saint Mary's University	University of Scranton
Concordia University at Austin	Northwest Nazarene University	Valparaiso University
Concordia University-Portland	Northwestern College (IA)	Villanova University
Concordia University-Nebraska	Pacific Lutheran University	Wartburg College
Concordia University-St. Paul	Pepperdine University	Westminster College
Culver-Stockton College	Presbyterian College	Westmont College
Dordt College	Regis University	Wheaton College
Eastern Mennonite University	Rhodes College	Whitworth University
Fairfield University	Rivier College	Wilberforce University
Fordham University	Roanoke College	Wittenberg University
Furman University	Roberts Wesleyan College	Wofford College
Geneva College	Sacred Heart University	Xavier University-Cincinnati
Georgetown College	Saint John's University (MN)	Xavier University of Louisiana
	Saint John's University (NY)

The Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts is based in Christ College, the interdisciplinary honors college of Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Indiana.

For more information, please consult the Lilly Fellows Program website at www.lillyfellows.org

VALPARAISO
UNIVERSITY